FIVE-COURSE DINNER

And Each Course Served at a Different Place.

"PACK OF QUEENS"

Give Their Friends a Unique Treat.

The social events of the week have been chiefly those of the Kelo-Parks ante-nuptial parties. A luncheon and a dinner given by Mrs. Parks, an informal chafin party at Miss Brown's. The progressive dinner by the "Pack of Queens," and a dinner which Mr. Kelo gave to his men friends at the Commercial club, made the week a very gay one.

A unique and successful party was the progressive dinner given by the "Pack of Queens" to their men friends. The dinner was in six courses, each course being served at the different homes of the young ladies. At the hour of 7 the guests met with Mrs. Blon Hill. Here the members of the club received. After this formality, the men found their partners, for the course, by quotations on hearts, each one containing the name of the young lady he was to escort to the table. At each place were bunches of violets, and a menu card, heart shape, on which was sketched a Gibson head, with the words, "The Queen of Hearts did make some tarts." The menu consisted of the following:

First Course—Pasta.

Second—Deviled crabs, new potatoes, stuffed tomatoes, olives and wine.

Third—Spring lamb with mint sauce, peas, radishes, wine jelly and punch.

Fourth—Waldorf salad, Neufchatel cheese with dates, water cross, wafers.

Fifth—Ice cream, with strawberries, saled almonds, pepper, coffee.

After the course at Mrs. Hill, the party found carriages outside to convey them to the next place, being Murdoch's. As this was the first course, the house was beautifully decorated in fish nets, and suspended from these were fish; the tables were done in carnations and bleeding hearts. This was given by Misses Woods, Wallenstein and Murdoch. Thence the crowd repaired to the elegant home of the Browns. There the dinner proper was served. Much credit is due the four queens that so gracefully managed such a difficult course. Departing here they left for the residence of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Parks. The home was in green and Marguerites. Miss Lattimer and Miss Parks were hostesses. Then for the desert at the new and artistic home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Innes, where Mrs. Innes, Miss Geobagan and Miss Lynch conducted this part of the menu. Candles with crimson shades diffused a soft light over the brilliant scene. The young ladies went to the upper rooms to remove their wraps, while the young men found a cozy, Oriental corner, in which to smoke. By 11 o'clock the gay party was found in the rhythmic swing of a delightful dance on the spacious porch of the residence, where until a late hour the devotees of Terpsichore filled in the time with laughter, repartee and innocent amusement.

The following were present: Misses Geobagan, Larimer, Woods, Pratt, Lynch, Jocelyn, Brown, Parks, Wallenstein, Murdoch, Niederlander of St. Louis, Mrs. Hill, Mrs. Innes; Messrs. Hoffman, W. Innes, Kelo, Hill, Topping, Eaton, Larimer, Priestly, Norris, Dennis, McCles, Priddy, Hockaday, Goldsmith, Dr. Rex, Davenport Hobart of St. Louis, Allen, Hagoy.

PARKS-KELO

May will be a month of weddings, and the first to be celebrated was that of Miss Maud Whitford Parks and Mr. Thomas Pomeroy Kelo. Miss Parks is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur S. Parks, while Mr. Kelo is a prominent young business man. The first Methodist Episcopal church, where the ceremony was performed, was beautifully decorated with Bernese lilies, palms, bridal wreaths and snowballs. Miss Daisy Lynch played "Angela's Serenade," and Miss Montez Dunbar sang charmingly, "Oh, Promise Me." Then, as the tones of the organ in the Mendelssohn wedding march pealed forth, the bridal party, preceded by the ushers, came slowly down the middle aisle to the chancel, where they were met by the Rev. Dr. W. B. Shuts, the officiating clergyman.

The bride wore a beautiful traveling gown of dark blue broadcloth, while the maid of honor, Miss Anna Brown, was dressed in grey crepe with lavender and white trimmings. Mr. Byron F. Hobart, Jr., of St. Louis, was best man. The ushers were Mr. Bruce Priddy, Mr. Roy Dennis, Mr. Jessie McCles and Mr. Claude Larimer.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelo left immediately on the Frisco for St. Louis, Detroit, Niagara and the home of Mr. Kelo's mother, in Belleville, Ontario. They will be at home early in June. The presents which have been shown to a number of intimate friends are exceptionally handsome, many having been sent by friends away; Judge and Mrs. David Kelo of Leavenworth, Uncle and aunt of the groom, Miss Ethel Niederlander and Mr. H. F. Hobart, Jr., of St. Louis, and Mr. R. E. Mole of Omaha. There was a large wedding party. Prominent among the guests were the young ladies who belong to the club of which Miss Parks was a member, and who were seated together. A charming group of children, particular friends of Miss Parks, was seated near the chancel, where their bright faces added to the beauty of the picture.

MRS. HOLMES AND MRS. FRANKS.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. F. J. Franks and Mrs. R. L. Holmes entertained at what at the latter's home on North Lawrence. The house was artistically decorated with palms and flowers, the color being pink and white. About fifty ladies were present.

In the evening the same two ladies with their husbands entertained at what. At both parties refreshments were served, during which time some delightful music was listened to. The prizes were bunches of pink and white roses. In the afternoon they were won by Mrs. A. C. Jones and by Mrs. George Diamond, and in the evening Mrs. Cooper of Los Angeles, California, and Mr. J. D. Houston carried away the honors.

AN EVENING RECEPTION.

Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Holmes held a reception at their home, 101 North Lawrence avenue. The hours were from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. In spite of bad weather, the house was thronged. Music was furnished during the entire evening. About 200 guests were present.

Evening receptions are very rare occurrences in Wichita, but are very common in some cities. Judging from the suc-

A REASON FOR IT.

There is Only One Pile Cure That Has Reached a National Popularity and Reputation.

There are many popular medicines that are known in every household in America. There are blood purifiers, nerve tonics, headache remedies, dyspepsia cures, and cough cures, which are sold in every drug store in the nation and beyond. But all of these must divide their popularity with many rivals, no one remedy has the field to itself, with the single exception of pile cures, for it is a singular fact that there is but one pile cure that can be considered as having a national reputation, without a rival and the referred to is the Pyramid Pile Cure which for seven years has steadily worked into the public favor by reason of its extraordinary merit, until it is known from Maine to California and from Manitoba to the Gulf.

It is true there are many pile remedies having a small local reputation for a year or two, but the Pyramid Pile Cure has rapidly supplanted them all and really has the field to itself when anything like national popularity is considered.

The explanation is simple. It is because piles is in no sense an imaginary trouble that a bread pill or a simple saline or almost will cure, but it is a chronic, painful and often dangerous trouble and a remedy to give satisfaction must possess positive and very apparent merit. A person suffering from piles will not experiment for months with a remedy; it must give relief and a cure in short order or it is condemned.

The various cases of piles are relieved on the first application of the Pyramid and a cure will result in a reasonable time from its regular use.

Medicine men use it in preference to operations because it is safer, is perfectly painless and the cost to patient is a mere trifle as all druggists sell the Pyramid Pile Cure at 50c, and as it is used at night, it cures without interfering with regular occupation.

If suffering from any form of piles, bleeding, itching or protruding, a trial of the Pyramid will cure you and add another to its thousands of friends.

One of the ones Friday evening they ought to become very popular.

FOR MISS NIDELANDER.

On Tuesday morning, at the home of her mother, Miss Vera Frasier entertained for Miss Ethel Niederlander of St. Louis. The morning was spent in playing whist. Miss Daisy Woods and Mrs. Charles Engleheart won the prizes. Those present were: Mrs. Frank, Mrs. Moffat, Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Howard Wheeler, Mrs. Walter Pond, Mrs. Engleheart, Misses Kondie, McGill, Rosa Woods, Murdoch, Hinton, Lynch, Florence Reed, Brown, Parks, Bessie Reed and Goehagan.

MRS. THORNTON W. SARGENT.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Thornton W. Sargent entertained in honor of Mrs. Coleman of Prescott, Ariz. The house was decorated in palms and lilies. The amusements were whist and an interesting game known as "A penny for your thoughts." In this game a card upon which twenty-three questions are written is given to each player. A penny goes along with each card and the answers of all the questions must be something that is found on the penny. Mrs. Munson was the one who answered the largest number of the questions.

Those present were: Mesdames Vail, Brooks, Munson, Imboden, McNamara, Holmes, Murdoch, Torrington, A. J. Cooper, C. H. Smyth, J. H. Houston, Caldwell, Pond, Wheeler, Gordon, F. G. Smyth and Will Smyth.

DR. AND MRS. J. C. WILSON.

Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Wilson entertained a number of their friends last Thursday evening. Cocktails and cordials were the principal amusements. Delightful refreshments were served and a very enjoyable evening was spent. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Kanard, Mr. and Mrs. Delamater, Mr. and Mrs. Will Ayres, Miss Ray of California, and Miss Helen Leaman of Nardin, Oklahoma.

BOATING PARTY.

The Wichita Boat club gave the first of a series of boat parties last Monday night. The launch was decorated with flags and made attractive with bright sofa pillows and rugs and lighted with gas bicycle lamps, and presented a very pretty appearance. A merry party gathered at 8:30, when supper was served on board, after which the evening was passed pleasantly with singing, recitations and conversations.

The guests were: Mesdames Lorie Waggoner, Mary Waggoner, Mary Garver, Georgia Hutchinson, Messrs. George Garver, Jim Garver, Clarence Copeland, Manley C. Warham and Harry L. Hunt.

The club expects to give many parties of the same nature during the boating season.

IT IS IMPORTANT

To Know What You Are Taking When Using Catarrh Remedies.

Catarrh is the short route to consumption, and the importance of early and judicious treatment of catarrh, whether located in the head, throat, or bronchial tubes, cannot be too strongly emphasized.

The list of catarrh cures is as long as the moral law and the forms in which they are administered numerous and confusing, from sprays, inhalants, washes, ointments, and salves, to powders, liquids and tablets.

The tablet form is undoubtedly the most convenient and most effective, but with nearly all advertised catarrh remedies it is almost entirely a matter of guesswork as to what you are taking into your system, as the proprietors, while making all sorts of claims as to what their medicines will do, always keep it a close secret as to what they are.

The success and popularity of the new catarrh cure, Stuart's Catarrh Tablets, is largely because it not only cures catarrh, but because catarrh sufferers who use these tablets know what they are taking into their systems. Stuart's Catarrh Tablets being composed of Eucalyptol, Hydrastin, Guaiacum and similar valuable and antiseptic ingredients, and are pleasant to the taste and being dissolved in the mouth they take immediate effect upon the mucous lining of the throat, nasal passages and whose respiratory tract.

The cure that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets have accomplished in old chronic cases of catarrh are little short of remarkable, and the advantage of knowing what you are putting into your stomach is of paramount importance when it is remembered that the cocaine or morphine habit has been frequently contracted as the result of using secret catarrh remedies.

Stuart's Catarrh Tablets meet with cordial approval from physicians, because their scientific character renders them perfectly safe for the general public to use and their composition makes them a common sense cure for all forms of catarrhal troubles.

All druggists sell them at 50c, for full sized packages.

Epworth League of the Emporia avenue M. E. church, was held on Friday night at the residence of Mr. R. M. McKibben on South Emporia, being followed by a social hour. The officers for the ensuing year are as follows:

President, N. M. Odell; vice presidents—Spiritual work, Elizabeth Stahl; Mercy and Help, Mrs. Jennie Morgan; Literary work, Rose Prosser; social work, Flora Dorsey; secretary, Susie Bittars; treasurer, Dr. A. D. Jones.

AT OAK STREET CHURCH.

One of the enjoyable features of the week was a social given by the young people of the Oak Street Presbyterian church. Miss Helen Merry and her brother, Kent, rendered some very excellent music on their mandolin and guitar. Martin Bennings carried off the honors of the evening by reciting "When David Shaved His Whiskers Off," and in response to an encore he recited "I'm Going Down to Grandpa's." Mr. Callahan and Mrs. Beck gave some fine recitations. The quartette, Miss Priest, Mrs. Isenheart, Mr. Goitre and Mr. Whitte, with Miss Sutton as organist, sang a beautiful hymn in a most pleasing manner served in the parlors of the church, during which Miss Pazel and Mr. Doan gave some fine music on the organ and violin.

MRS. HENDRICKSON'S RECITAL.

Mrs. Hendrickson's pupils' recital at Dr. Fordyce's on last Friday evening was a success in every respect except the weather, although a large number braved the threatening storm and were present. Mrs. Hendrickson, in order that the program should not be too long, selected only twelve of her pupils for this recital and they all gave a most delightful interpretation of each number. Three grades were represented, the beginners, intermediate and advanced. Invitation cards were sent out some days before for this recital, and judging from the many complimentary remarks that were made during the evening as well as the applause each number elicited, those who were present were not sorry they defied the elements. As will be seen by the program two numbers were trios for mandolin, guitar and piano. Mrs. Hendrickson teaches these instruments as well as piano. Following is the program:

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ENTERTAIN.

The West Side Royal Neighbors gave a social Thursday night and it was a grand success in every respect. A short program was rendered, recitations were given by some of the best young lady speakers in the city. A nice cake, beautifully decorated was won by Miss Emma Hornady and Mr. Art Alexander in the cake walk. It was some among the best and most systematic and orderly socials ever given at a lodge. The crowd was too large for all to receive proper attention. The West Side Royal Neighbors have made a lasting impression on the public, and all went away wishing them a speedy return of another social, and success in their noble work.

One of the most attractive and inviting stores on Main street is the Wichita Market at 24 North Main street. The market is kept as clean as an ice cream parlor and their meats, kept in cold storage, look tempting. With the entire front of the market thrown open gives it a metropolitan appearance. It's the only market in the city using cold storage instead of ice, and is also one of the most attractive, finest and busiest market in the city.

BETHLEHEM MONDAY NIGHT

Chautau Presented at the Reformed Church.

An achievement in musical capabilities that is really worthy of a grand ovation of praise is the presentation of the cantata, Bethlehem by the chorus choir of the Reformed church at the church, on South Topeka avenue, on Monday night. The fact that the entire cantata, notes and all, is presented by the regular choir of the church which, contains over forty voices, without going outside the organizations, means a great deal. The full chorus is fine and well trained, and the solo parts are ably taken by such well known voices as Mrs. Bruce Griffith, Miss Purvett and Messrs. Fritz Hattman, Mose W. Johnson, Silas Brown and Luther Mueller. Shaw's full orchestra will assist, and musically the event promises to be something excellent. The program will begin promptly at 8:15.

GEUDA SPRINGS NEWS

Death of Samuel McCormick at Kingfisher, O.T.

N. A. Wells can't understand why white lime deposited in his eye paints the eye red.

The small child of Mr. Hausman's was buried in the cemetery last Tuesday morning.

School closed last Friday with a picnic in Gabriel's grove.

These, Biddie and Miss Nannie Masters were married in the parlor of the Geuda hotel last Sunday evening at 7:30.

Several of Geuda young ladies spent Sunday in the country at the home of Miss Laura Long.

Mrs. Berkey and daughter have returned home and Mrs. Berkey is giving music lessons again.

Miss C. A. Rayal is visiting friends in Wichita, and will probably not be home for a couple of weeks.

Those who took the public school examination here and were successful in passing are: Bert Nester, Ollie Smith and Chaire Baumgartner.

Several of the young people have decided to join the M. E. church, providing the conference allows the members to go to Geuda etc.

Samuel McCormick died at his home in Kingfisher Wednesday morning of pneumonia. The body was shipped to Geuda Thursday morning and buried by the I. O. O. F.

Mrs. A. A. Woods will sing a solo at the Episcopal church this evening, for the Young People's chapter meeting.
